The information in this document is general in nature and doesn't take into account your or your client's personal objectives, financial circumstances, or needs. Please read our legal documents and ensure you fully understand the risks before you make any trading decisions. We encourage you to seek independent advice.

This Cookie Policy applies to residents of the UK and EEA who've registered for a trading and or demo account with Pepperstone.

If you're a resident outside of the UK and EEA please refer to our Group Website for a link to the Pepperstone entity (and associated legal documents) that's relevant to you.

1. What are cookies?

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets businesses know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual.

Cookies help us provide you with a better website by enabling us to monitor the pages that you find useful and tailor our website to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

The cookies that we use can't execute code or deliver any viruses. We only ever use cookies for:

- the essential function of our website;
- analytical purposes to provide you with a great client experience; and
- marketing, so that we serve you with content that's in line with your interests, based on your activity on our site.

We fully respect your privacy and provide you with the relevant information and tools so that you can manage your cookie preferences.

2. Pepperstone Policy

We use a number of cookies to provide you and other users with our products and services via our website and platform.

We categorise our cookies into the following groups:

- Essential: cookies which are essential to the functioning of our website and our products and services. This includes enabling you to complete trading account applications, remembering your login details, initiating web chat with our support team or other website functionality. If you disable these cookies you won't be able to fully access our trading platform.
- Analytical: cookies that allow us to improve our offering and website, enabling us to tailor the site to your personal preferences.
- Marketing: cookies that allow us to provide information to visitors on third party websites and measure the effectiveness of our marketing initiatives. We adhere to industry accepted best practice in respect of our use of marketing cookies.
